The Dodgers
Rookie Year:
1947
Accomplishments:
1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 National Leage MVP, played in 6 World Series Games, 1955 National Championship, 1962 Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

About Jackie:
Jackie Robinson was born on January 31, 1919, in Cairo, Georgia. Jackie's family was poor. His father left when he was 16 months old, and his mother moved his family to California. His hobbies were playing sports like track, football and he even played basketball in college. He also joined the Army. Jackie didn't graduate from college, but he did get married and had three children. Their names were Sharon, David, and Jackie Jr. Jackie Robinsons was famous for being the first African American to join the major leagues in 1947. Blacks and whites didn't have the same rights back then so this was a big deal. He was given the Rookie of the Year Award and the Dodgers became league champions in 1947, his first year on the team. He was also the first baseball player to have his picture on a US stamp. He was voted into the Hall of Fame in 1962 and died a hero in 1972.
